Handakas is the Byzantine name of Heraklion, the largest wine region of Crete where the majority of wineries are situated. On this tour, we'll learn about Crete's indigenous grapes as we explore some of the region's most beautiful vineyards, lightly trek to ancient wine presses, and/or hidden Byzantine churches. We visit 2 wineries, we learn their stories, taste their wines and enjoy Cretan meze, the healthiest cuisine of the Mediterranean. The itineraries in Heraklion wine zone are designed exclusively based on your wine profile and set for you personally.
